

	FAMILY MEMBERS OF EU/EEA CITIZENS	YES	NO	REMARK
	Please note! This checklist is only applicable for family members to EU/EEA citizens that falls under the scope of the Directive 2004/38/EC. The country/purpose checklist is NOT to be submitted in addition to this checklist. EU citizens residing in or travelling to the Member State of their own nationality do not normally benefit from the rights granted by the Directive (as there is no element of free movement). For example, a family member to a Swedish citizen living in Sweden do not hold a right of residence based on Directive 2004/38/EC in his/her home country, unless the EU-citizen returned to Sweden after having utilised the right of free movement in another Member State for a certain period. Neither is the Directive applicable when the purpose is to travel to the Member State in which the EU citizen is a national.
