

SEMINAR ON AGENDA 2030 AND SUSTAINABLE URBAN DEVELOPMENT

Thursday, 31 May 2018 | 9.30-13.30

Nordic Embassies | Felleshus | Rauchstraße 1 | 10787 Berlin

What must be done in order to achieve the goals set by the United Nations and What role could cities, research and youth play to make this possible?

In this seminar representatives of Nordic cities, a German research institution and youth seek answers to these questions

The seminar is part of the Diplomacy for Sustainability program during the European Sustainable Development Week in Berlin 2018

Please register via event.berlin@gov.se by Thursday, 24 May 2018

PROGRAM

09.30 Registration, coffee

10.00 Welcome and introduction

Johan Frisell, Deputy Ambassador, Swedish Embassy

10.10 Iceland's implementation of Agenda 2030

Þórdís Kolbrún Reykfjörð Gylfadóttir,
Minister of Tourism, Industry and Innovation, Iceland

10.30 Agenda 2030 in the Nordic Region

Anders Geertsen, Head of Department for Growth and Climate, Nordic Council of Ministers Secretariat

10.50 How to achieve Urban Sustainability Transformations in real life

Prof. Dr. Sigrun Kabisch, Helmholtz Centre for Environmental Research (UFZ),
Department of Urban and Environmental Sociology

11.10 Panel discussion

Raymond Johansen, Governing Mayor of Oslo

Burkhard Jung, Mayor of Leipzig

Katarina Luhr, Vice Mayor of Environment, Stockholm

Sirpa Hertell, Chair of Sustainable Espoo Program, Espoo

Torben Gleesborg, Executive Director, Technical and Environmental Administration, Copenhagen

Moderation – Jonas Freist-Held, European Youth Advisor, UN-Habitat

12.30 Lunch buffet

On behalf of the five Nordic Embassies we wish you

hjertelig velkommen | tervetuloa | verið velkomin | hjärtligt välkomna

Nordic Council of Ministers

THE GLOBAL GOALS
For Sustainable Development

DÄNEMARK | FINNLAND | ISLAND | NORWEGEN | SCHWEDEN

NORDISCHE
BOTSCHAFTEN