

Dag Hartelius – curriculum vitae

Born 1955 in Härnösand, Sweden

Married, three sons

Academic degree:

BA degree, 1979, Uppsala University

PhD preparatory (Political science), 1981, Uppsala University

Professional career:

2019- Ambassador of Sweden to the Republic of Hungary, Budapest
2013-2019 Director-General, National Defence Radio Establishment (FRA), Stockholm
2011-2013 Permanent Representative of Sweden to the European Union, Brussels
2008-2011 Ambassador of Sweden to the Republic of Poland, Warsaw
2003-2008 Ambassador of Sweden to the Republic of Estonia, Tallinn
1999-2003 Director, Department for Central and Eastern Europe, MFA, Stockholm
1997-1999 Vice President for European Security, EastWest Institute, New York
1994-1997 Counsellor for political affairs, Embassy of Sweden, London
1991-1994 Deputy Director, Baltic and Russian affairs, MFA, Stockholm
1989-1991 First Secretary, Embassy of Sweden (later Consulate General), Berlin
1987-1989 First Secretary, Embassy of Sweden, Moscow
1986-1987 Consul, Consulate General of Sweden, St Petersburg
1985-1986 Desk Officer, Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Stockholm
1982-1985 Senior Analyst, Swedish Defence Staff, Stockholm
1981-1982 Desk Officer, Swedish Agency for Emergency Preparedness, Stockholm
1979-1981 Assistant/Research Assistant, Department for Soviet and East European Studies/Department of Government, Uppsala University

Language skills:

Swedish (native)
English (fluent)
German (fluent)
Russian (fluent)
Estonian (fluent)
French (fair)
Polish (fair)

Publications:

Numerous articles on Baltic Sea cooperation and security; Russia; Baltic states.

Co-editorship of Russia and the West; Russia and the South; Russia and the East (M.E. Sharpe, Armonk, N.Y., 1999) based on the EastWest Institute project Russia's Total Security Environment
Russia and its regions (Ryssland och dess regioner). Report. SIIA, 1993

Advisership:

2017-2019 Expert adviser, Inquiry on the potential Swedish participation in the European Banking Union